Invite you to take part in the 6th International Scientific Conference “Philosophy for children: Language and Consciousness. In memory of Nina Yulina”. The conference will take place in Moscow, November 5-7, 2014. The participants are welcome to attend one of the following sections:

1. Place and role of childhood problematic in the philosophy of language and consciousness;
2. Philosophy with children as a way to form moral consciousness;
3. Logical basics of philosophical programs for children and adults;
4. Psychological aspects of language and consciousness development by means of philosophy;
5. Philosophy in the educational space of school (language, consciousness and thinking).

Round table: “Contribution of Nina Yulina to the promotion of “Philosophy for children in Russia”.

Symposium: Does philosophy help children? (parents forum)

Working languages: Russian, English.

Proposals requirements:
A proposal should not exceed 3 pages (4500-5000 characters) in Word. Right hand corner should have author’s name, scientific degree, academic rank, region (in brackets), e.g.: John Smith, PhD, Professor (London). A proposal should contain a short summary in Russian (2-3 sentences) placed right after the title. Proposals are only accepted in the electronic form by email P4Crus2014@gmail.com and should be attached together with the application form (to be found in this invitation). The application deadline is September 20, 2014. All the received proposals undergo the registration. Your proposals are necessarily registered. Proposals are registered if you received a notification with a registration number. Only one proposal per person is accepted for the publication. Organizational committee reserves the right to reject or edit the proposals. Proposals are published.

Registration fee – 50$, students – 30$

Actual information about the conference is available on the website www.philos.msu.ru and www.phil4chil.ru

Organizational committee doesn’t cover travel and accommodation expenses

Organizational committee’s address: Faculty of Philosophy, Lomonosov Moscow State University, Leninskie gory, Moscow. Tel.: +7 (495) 993-57-03 (scientific department).

The program of the conference includes a Post-conference seminar of the leading Russian and foreign experts. The Seminar will take place November 7-9, 2014 in the touristic base near Moscow and will include a philosophy for children program and a certificate of advanced educational training.

P.S. Registration fee for the seminar is still being clarified.
Application form

Full name
Title of the proposal
Section, round table № ______________________________

Scientific degree, academic rank
Place of work/studies
Position
Address
Tel.
E-mail:
Need accommodation: YES/NO
Need visa: YES/NO
Participation in the Post-conference seminar: YES/NO

***

During the conference the organizers also host an Olympiad for schoolchildren and college students aged 8-18.